Genoua, September 22. N. S.

THE Doge Negroni having finiſhed the uſual Term of his Government, which is Two years, the Senate proceeded on Monday laſt to the Election of his Succeſſor, and made choice, by the plurality of Voices, of Signior Franciſco Sauli, who the ſame day took poſſeſſion of that Dignity. We have an account from Milan, that there has been great Rejoycing for the late Victory in Hungary; and that the Marquis de Leganez will continue in that Government for this Winter at leaſt; The 2 Regiments of Suiſſers in the Service of the Milaneze are reduced to half the number they were during the War. By a Veſſel, which is come in here in 5 days from Marſeilles, we are told, that the French have laid up all their Men of War and Galleys, that were employed in the Siege of Barcelona.

Turin, Sept. 22. The Duke of Savoy intends to viſit the Gariſon of Montmelian, and other places in the Dutchy of Savoy, and has fixed his Journey for the 24th of this month; The City of Geneva, upon notice of it, have appointed Deputies, to Compliment his Royal Highneſs at his arrival at Chamberi. An Expreſs arrived here two days ago, being diſpatched by the Governor of Milan, to acquaint his Royal Highneſs with the Signal Victory the Imperial Forces have lately obtained over the Turks in Hungary, and particularly to Compliment him upon the great Honour which Prince Eugene of Savoy has gained in this occaſion.

Malaga, Sept. 26. This week arrived here two Spaniſh Galleys from Catalonia, having on board Don Franciſco de Velaſco, late Viceroy of that Country, who is going to his Houſe not far from this place. The Moores continue the Siege of Ceuta, more out of obſtinacy, than any proſpect they have of making themſelves Maſters of the place, their number being ſo leſſened by the Loſſes they have ſuſtained, that 'tis hardly ſufficient to guard their own Poſts, much leſs to make any Attacks. The War ſtill continues between the Emperor of Morocco and the Government of Algiers, but we do not hear that any thing conſiderable has paſſed in either Army this Summer.

Venice, Sept. 28. The new Captain-General Cornaro has received the uſual Compliments upon his Advancement to this Station; He intends to embark the next week, by which time the great Convoy that is preparing here for the Levant may be ready; Several Perſons of Quality have offered their Service to accompany him, his Experience and Reputation in former Employments having procured him a general Eſteem. By the laſt Letters from the Morea, which are dated the 9th of the laſt month at Andros, the Venetian Fleet were ſtill in that Port; The Captain-General Molino had ſent out ſeveral Veſſels to get Intelligence of the Enemies Motions, and the freſheſt he had received was, that their Fleet under the Command of the Captain-Baſſa Mezzomorto, lay in the Harbour of Scio, repairing the damages they had ſuſtained in their laſt Engagement with the Venetians. The Venetian Forces, poſted near the Iſthmus of Corinth, having ſent out the laſt month ſome Parties, with Orders to march into the Enemies Country, one of them met with and defeated a Party of about 100 Turks; and the Priſoners they took, gave an account, that the Enemies Army, which lay encamped near that Frontier, did not conſiſt of above 8 or 10000 Men; and that all their beſt Troops were ſent to Hungary.

Vienna, Oct. 2. An Expreſs was diſpatched from hence two days ago to the Imperial Army in Hungary, with the Emperor's Orders, about ſettling their Winter Quarters, upon whoſe arrival, 'tis believed the Troops will make haſte to ſeparate, by reaſon of the inconveniencies they ſuffer through the ſcarcity of Forage. The Biſhop of Paſſau has given the Emperor a particular Relation of his late Embaſſy in Poland, which he has performed very much to the ſatisfaction of this Court. The Letters from Cracow of the 28th of the laſt month, give an account, that the Dyet which is uſually held immediately after the Coronation of the Kings of Poland, is now aſſembled there, and that ſo ſoon as 'twas ended, the King would repair to Warſaw, with ſuch a number of Forces, as in all likelihood would ſoon diſperſe the Party that oppoſe him, who have of late had their principal meetings in that City.
